"AROUND THE WORLD IN EIGHT

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.—On Wednesday night the show window of John-Heckel, the Market street cutler, was broken open and a lot of dominoes and other articles stolend. Officer Baird happened to be in the vicinity at the time, and noticed Henry Rockebrand loitering suspiciously near the window. The officer then followed him and saw enough to confirm his suspicions. Rockebrand was yesterday arrested and jailed on a warrant for burglary issued by Justice Caldwell and will have an examination this morning at 10 o'clock. This is the third time Mr. Heckel's window has been robbed. The thieves are after the revolvers that are exposed to view during the day, and removed a night. "AROUND THE WORLD IN EIGHTY DAYS."—The Kiralfy Bros. combination presented Jules Verne's "Around the World in Eighty Days" at the Opera House last night to a very large and generally well-pleased audience. The play, as all who have read the story would readily imagine, is full of sensational stigations, artiking tableaux, noexpected disasters and miraculous escapes, with a rich seasoning of fun. It was horribly mutilated, however, and the "grand spectacular drama" promised existed only in the imagination of the proprietors. The music, too, was of the poorest dearription; so poor, in fact, that the ballet dancers were several times obliged to stop until the musicians received some instructions as to what was expected of them. The whole thing resembled an atternoon rehersal. As for the acting, the "Passepartout" of Mr. Lyttle and the "Phileas Fogg" of Mr. Metkiff were admirable performances. Mr. G. C. Charles, as "Miles O'Pake," a character that Jules Verne never conceived, was very fair. Miss Vandyke deserves favorable mention for her "Aouda." The remainder of the cast, with the exception, we will say, of Mr. Wallace's "Fix," was rather weak.

CAPTURED IN PITTSBURGH,—Edward Burns, who escaped from the Mounds-ville penitentiary some time last summer, was yesterday captured in Pittsburgh by Officers' Defiborgh and Bogard, and brought by them to this city and lodged in jail, Burns and a young man named Gordon were sent to Moundsville from this county for four years each for stealing a watch from George Arkle on the Fair Grounds. After making his escape Burns wrote a rather unique letter to Sapt. Bridges from some point out West, which our readers will no doubt remember, as it was published in these columns. A reward of $50 was offered by Governor Jacob for Burns' arrest. CAPTURED IN PITTSBURGH.

ing the last thirty-six hours. At present the harbor in front of Louisville is clear of ice, but can not long remain so, as gorges éxist above and below the city and the weather is turning colder. No boats arrived or departed to-day, and neither the Morning Star nor the Grey Eagle, the Henderson packets of yesterday and the day before, have been heard from at Owensboro, which place they should have passed before to-day. The Tarascon left Evansville for Louisville to-day, but has not yet arrived. The failure to hear from these boats confirms the opinion that a gorge exists below.
